

Neuroinclusive Leadership Training

Empowering Schools and Settings to support neurodiverse Children and Young People | In partnership with the Autism Education Trust (AET)

Who is this training for?

This training is designed for Senior Leadership Teams (SLT), including headteachers, deputy heads, assistant heads, and other school leaders who are committed to fostering neuroinclusive environments across their settings.

How will this training help you?

What you will learn:

- A strategic understanding of neurodiversity and its implications for whole-school leadership and culture
- How to identify and reduce systemic barriers that impact neurodivergent pupils, staff, and families
- Leadership approaches to embed inclusive practice
- Ways to champion wellbeing, autonomy, and belonging for all members of the school community

Training Format:

This training will be Delivered as a half day session on the 14th January 9.00am-12.30pm at Shrewsbury Guildhall

Delivered By:

This programme is delivered by Shropshire Council's Autism Education Trust (AET) Team, comprising a Specialist Senior Educational Psychologist, an Education Quality Advisor (EQA), and Senior Leaders from Shropshire's Specialist Schools. Together, they bring psychological insight and practical leadership expertise.

Training Cost and CPD Offer

Thanks to additional funding support, we are pleased to offer this half-day Neuroinclusive Leadership training at a reduced rate of £40.

This price includes access to a follow-up CPD networking meeting on 3rd March (time and venue to be confirmed), providing an opportunity to share learning, problem solve collaboratively, and continue your professional development.

This subsidised rate is available for a limited time as part of our current finding allocation.

To book, please complete a booking form by clicking the link or scan the QR code. For questions on course content, please contact ellen.parsons@shropshire.gov.uk. For questions on booking, please contact robert.court@shropshire.gov.uk.

